A presentation - exploring the creative process from the genesis of the idea to its development and fruition.

Dr Graeme Wright Denniss has had a long and varied career as a performer, music educator and composer. A graduate of the Queensland Conservatorium of Music, he studied Piano and French Horn (double majors) and Composition, being student of the Year in his final undergraduate year. After 20 years of orchestral experience, including 14 years as Principal Third Horn in the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, Graeme returned to Brisbane where he completed a PhD in Composition at the University of Queensland. His compositions have been performed and recorded by the Melbourne and Tasmanian Symphony Orchestras, the Queensland. Philharmonic and Youth Orchestras , as well as a wide variety of professional and student/amateur musicians and ensembles.
